About us

In Memory of Marion Bigg

Cancer connect was created in loving memory of Marion Bigg (Duffy), our loving mother who passed away from Breast Cancer, aged 78 (02/12/1938-18/12/2016).

Marion's experience and that of our family was something that we could never be prepared for. Mum's despicable treatment from the medical system left us disgusted and ill-informed. Cancer Connect has been created to help other families and patients and carers to be fully informed and supported within a loving and accepting community.

Our vision of providing free services to those experiencing cancer is to help with the daily struggles that seem often just too hard to deal with during such a challenging time.

We hope you find this App and our volunteer services useful and if we have made your life easier and given you the support you need from day to day, then we have achieved our dream.

Please helps us to spread the word about Cancer Connect and its purpose.
